The minutes of the House Federal and State Affairs Committee at 1:58 p.m. on March 27, 2012, in Room 346-S of the Capitol.

into SB 275. SB 275 is a shell because the language in it was inserted into SB 288. The motion carried. We are back on House substitute for SB 275 as amended.

Representative Gregory moved, Representative Holmes seconded to move SB 275 out favorably as amended. The motion carried.

The Chairman called on the committee to work HB 2575–Kansas immigration accountability act; state agencies; state contractors.

Representative Brunk introduced his balloon amendment (Attachment 5). The balloon contained the entire language of the bill. The balloon requires some oversight of the e-verify program.

Representative Rubin moved HB 2575 favorably for passage, Representative Bowers seconded.

Representative Rubin moved, Representative O’Hara seconded to insert the language of HB 2577–Enrollment and participation in an e-verify program by business and governmental entities; penalties, into HB 2575. Representative Brunk asked if the 25% penalty was doable. Representative Rubin explained the concept of liquidated damages and said the percent could be changed.

Representative Goico made a substitute motion, seconded by Representative Wolfe-Moore to insert the language of HB 2712– Kansas workers and community partnership act, undocumented aliens and HB 2577 into HB 2575. Representative Brunk said that he had hoped to do something simple. Representative Rubin was opposed to the motion, especially opposed to HB 2712. Representative Goico said that HB 2575 was constitutional. Representative Rubin said he thought that the motion was out of order. Representative Seiwert made a motion to table the motion, seconded by Representative Boman. The motion to table carried.

The Chairman called upon the committee to work SB 299–Alcoholic beverages; creating a public venue license. Mike Heim explained that this was a new type of license.

Representative Rubin moved, seconded by Representative Wolfe Moore to report SB 299 out favorably for passage. Representative Rubin moved his balloon amendment, seconded by Representative Gatewood (Attachment 6). Representative Rubin explained his amendment. Doug Jorgensen of ABC said they were OK with the amendment. The motion carried.

Representative Rubin moved a second amendment to strike on page 1, lines 34 and 35 the words “which may include all premises which are in close proximity and are under the control of the applicant or licensee”, and move the new language on page 10, line 25 to page 1, line 34, seconded by Representative Wolfe Moore. The revisor, Mike Heim said that language would work. The Rubin motion carried. We are back on the bill as amended.

Representative Gregory objected to the bill as a whole. Representative Howell also objected to the bill. The motion to pass SB 299 as amended carried. Representatives Gregory and Howell asked to be recorded as ‘no’ votes.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:53 p.m.

The next meeting is scheduled for March 29, 2012.
