CONTINUATION SHEET

Minutes of the HOUSE TAXATION Committee at 3:41 PM on Wednesday, February 29, 2012 in 783-DSOB.

HB 2717 - Allowing employees to retain and receive contributions from employers on individual policies and providing an income tax deduction for premiums paid on individually underwritten privately purchased health insurance policies.

Scott Wells briefed the Committee on HB 2717 which allows small business employers Kansas tax exemptions on group health insurance plans for their employees. He stood for questions.

Representative Arlen Siegfried testified in support of HB 2717 emphasizing the positive impact of tax exemptions for both small business owners' and their employees when providing group health insurance policies to individual employees. (Attachment 1) He stood for questions.

Beverly Gossage testified in support of HB 2717 by addressing three problems: uninsured Kansans, skyrocketing small group insurance premiums, and discrimination regarding health insurance premium tax law. She also proposed solutions for each problem. (Attachment 2) She stood for questions.

Eric Stafford testified in support of HB 2717, by promoting tax exemptions for small business owners who want to continue offering their employees group health policies, and to help offset the increasing cost of health insurance affected by rising health care costs. (Attachment 3) He stood for questions.

Dan Murray testified in support of HB 2717, by emphasizing the flexibility and portability of the bill for all employees, including those who are required to change employers on a frequent basis. (Attachment 4) He stood for questions.

Written only testimony in support of HB 2717 was presented by Kerri Spielman, Kansas Association of Insurance Agents (Attachment 5).

Written only neutral testimony for HB 2717 was presented by Linda Sheppard, Kansas Insurance Department (Attachment 6).

After all questions were answered, Chairman Carlson closed the hearing on HB 2717.

The next meeting of the Committee is scheduled for 3:30 pm, Thursday, March 1, 2012 in 783-DSOB.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:56 pm.
