

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 25, 2021, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Rick Wilborn.

The roll was called with 38 senators present.

Senator Suellentrop was excused.

The Vice President introduced guest chaplain, Dr. Jeff Barclay, Lead Pastor – Christ Community Church, Lawrence, to deliver the invocation:

Great and only God, as bearers of Your image, the men and women in this chamber have a weighty responsibility. Under Your care and guidance, may they shoulder their tasks with honesty and humility. In representing the citizens of Kansas, I invite You to join these State Senators in the sacred stewardship of governance.

With the unprecedented circumstances of these times, this Senate is introducing and debating legislation never before considered necessary to the health, welfare and prosperity of our state's citizens. When there is conflict in these discussions, help it be collegial. When compromises are made, may they come by wisdom. When there is consensus, may there be celebration. Our state's motto Ad Astra Per Aspera emboldens us – but getting to the stars this session is most certainly going to be difficult. Writing legislation in this challenging session requires Your help.

Lord we say with the psalmist, we trust in You. It is only through Your unfailing love that we are not shaken. No one in this room wants to make a decision that causes detriment to another person. But, we are not naïve. There is disagreement on how to define what is good and bad policy. The questions before this Senate are how to be fair for all whom this chamber legislates. May Your love for all people, and things good and right, prevail.

Lord our hearts are stirred by noble themes – the causes of truth, justice, equity and liberty. These are precarious times for truth, justice, equity and liberty. This is because contradictory statements cannot both be true, justice for one cannot create inequity for another, and when a person's liberty restricts another's, neither is truly free. To accomplish such lofty goals – truth, justice, equity and liberty – is why every member of this Senate requires a head that thinks with Your thoughts and a heart that beats with Your feelings.

We thank you for the many that serve this Senate in the background. The record keepers, the statisticians, the correspondents, those that keep things clean and safe and those that guard us. These people we respect and appreciate. I bring everyone that serves in this beautiful Capital building before You.

God, you have proven Yourself in Kansas' past. How we need you in Kansas' present. I offer this prayer in the name of Your Son, My Savior, Jesus Christ, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Wilborn.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Hawk, Alley, Billinger, Bowers, Claeys, Corson, Dietrich, Fagg, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Holland, Holscher, Kerschen, Kloos, McGinn, Pettey, Pittman, Sykes and Ware introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1710—

A RESOLUTION honoring the life of George Washington Carver and his contributions to American agriculture and society.

WHEREAS, George Washington Carver was born into slavery in 1864 in Diamond Springs, Missouri, and came to Kansas at the age of thirteen; and

WHEREAS, He graduated from Minneapolis High School in Minneapolis, Kansas; and

WHEREAS, He spent his teenage and young adult years living, going to school and working in many locations across Kansas, including Paola, Olathe, Spring Hill and Beeler in Ness County; and

WHEREAS, He attended Iowa State Agricultural College, and in 1894, he became the first African American to earn a Bachelor of Science degree; and

WHEREAS, In 1896, Carver earned a Master's degree in Agricultural Science; and

WHEREAS, He worked from 1896 to the end of his life at the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama; and

WHEREAS, Carver taught impoverished farmers that the farmers could feed their hogs with acorns instead of commercial feed and enrich croplands with swamp muck instead of expensive fertilizers; and

WHEREAS, Carver introduced crop rotation by growing nitrogen-fixing plants like peanuts, soybeans and sweet potatoes to restore the nutrient-depleted soil from years of growing cotton; and

WHEREAS, Carver invented numerous products from sweet potatoes, including flour, vinegar, stains, dyes, paints and writing ink; and

WHEREAS, He developed over 300 food, industrial and commercial products from peanuts, including milk, Worcestershire sauce, cooking oils, paper, cosmetics, soaps and wood stains; and

WHEREAS, In 1921, Carver appeared before the United States House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee to demonstrate the vast number of products that could be made from peanuts, thereby earning a standing ovation from committee members; and

WHEREAS, Carver traveled to India to advise Mahatma Gandhi on how to adopt Carver's nutritional theories in India and other developing nations; and

WHEREAS, Upon his death on January 5, 1943, he was buried next to famed educator and author Booker T. Washington on the grounds of the Tuskegee Institute; and

WHEREAS, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed legislation that gave Carver his own monument, an honor only previously granted to presidents George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. George Washington Carver's monument stands in Diamond Springs, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, In 1990, George Washington Carver was posthumously inducted into the National Inventors Hall of Fame: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the significant achievements of George Washington Carver and his contributions to American agriculture and society; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Senator Hawk.

On emergency motion of Senator Hawk SR 1710 was adopted unanimously.

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Haley and Pittman introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:
