Nominations being in order for speaker, Rep. K. Williams nominated Rep. Dan Hawkins for Speaker of the House. There being no further nominations, Rep. Miller moved that the nominations be closed, and that a temporary clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Hawkins as speaker of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Secretary of State Scott Schwab requested Rep. Hawkins to approach the bar for the oath of office.

Speaker-elect Hawkins subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Luckert.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of January, 2023.

MARLA LUCKERT

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker Hawkins addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

The biggest thing I can say today is Thank You.

First off to my family. My wife Diane. My daughters Hannah and Hayley. There is no greater honor than being Diane's husband and Hannah and Hayley's dad. Just like everyone in this body, I have to spend a lot of time away from home. It wouldn't be possible without the support of our families.

I also need to say thank you to every one of you for the honor of serving as House Speaker. The trust you've placed in me is truly overwhelming.

Another Thank You to the people of the 100th House District. While being in leadership brings a number of other commitments, I also remain firmly committed to my friends and constituents back home.

I'd like to give a special thanks to these gentlemen sitting above and behind me. We're honored to be joined today by six former House Speakers. Ron Ryckman, Ray Merrick, Mike O'Neal, Doug Mays, Kent Glasscock, and Tim Shallenburger. Gentlemen, thank you for being here today and for your service to our state. Every day that I walk into the House chambers and see the photos of previous Speakers hanging on the wall it is a reminder of the great responsibility that comes with this position.

Finally, I want to thank the staff that makes the legislature run. The people's business does not get done without the work of the staff in this building. Without the clerks, the revisors, research, legislative services, capital police, the door men, and the men and women who keep this building clean we would not have a functioning legislature. I want to thank them as well as my own staff for all of the work they do.

Today is not the day for political speeches. There will be plenty of time for disagreements and debate in the coming months. Today, I want to focus on what we do agree on. Kansas faces serious issues. The economy. The cost of living. The future of water in our state. Issues with our foster care system.

The people of Kansas expect their legislature to take a serious approach to these serious problems. Over the next two years my pledge is to create an environment in the House where we can work together to find those solutions.

We will work across the aisle when we can. We will disagree strongly but respectfully when we must. But in the end our focus will be on serious, long term solutions for our constituents.

There was a time when Kansas was a trendsetter. I think by working together we can be that way again. There is a better way to do things. A way focused on solutions. Let's call it the Kansas way.

God Bless you all and now let's get to work.

Speaker Hawkins was presented the gavel by Secretary of State, Scott Schwab, and assumed the chair.

Speaker Hawkins announced the appointment of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk; Foster Chisolm as Sergeant-at-Arms and Eunice Brubaker as House Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Nominations being in order for speaker pro tem, Rep. K. Williams nominated Rep. Blake Carpenter for Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. There being no further nominations, Rep. Winn moved that the nominations be closed, and that the clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Carpenter as speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Speaker Hawkins requested Rep. Carpenter to approach the bar for the oath of office. Speaker pro tem-elect Carpenter subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Luckert.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of January, 2023.

MARLA LUCKERT

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker pro tem Carpenter addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, Chief Justice Luckert, for your participation today; thank you to all of the family members who made the trip to the capitol today to support your loved ones as they are about to embark on this journey, and thank you, Body, for allowing me to be your Speaker Pro Tempore.

And finally, thank you to my family and my wife, Cziara, for all the support and grace she has given me while serving in public office. I could not do this without her support and understanding, which is the story for many of us regarding our spouses.

In our Body, two Constitutional positions exist the Speaker and the Speaker Pro Tempore. While the majority party initially elected me, we just held another vote that both parties cast so that I could serve in this position. This means working with this side of the chamber and this side of the chamber to achieve the best policies for Kansans. Over the next two years, we will agree on many issues and passionately disagree on others. We cannot let our disagreements tear down our bonds as Kansans and neighbors. After we lay down our spears and the day's battle is concluded, find a legislator you disagree with and grab a coffee or exchange a friendly word, even when it is hard. Because although you may have been against each other today, you may be with each other tomorrow.

To the new legislators, there will be times in which you feel like a ship being tossed about on an ocean with all the unique intricacies this job has and that you must learn quickly. Find a safe harbor in your friends, mentors, and constituents. Allow them to be your lighthouse and guide you. Without these individuals, this task becomes far greater, and as time passes, the waves will get higher and higher, and this is when you will need those safe harbors to help you through the storms. Don't weather it alone. Things lurk in the depths that will try and throw you off track. Remember, your constituents placed you in these seats, and it is those individuals you serve, not those with special interests.

There is a quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson that I want to share with you: "To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know that even one life has breathed easier because you have lived — that is to have succeeded." I challenge each of us to leave Kansas better than we found it by the end of this term so that future generations can continue to achieve the American Dream, the Kansas Dream.

We are One Nation Under God, and in God We Trust. And I will continue to trust in Him, for all glory and power is His now and forever. Thank you all so very much. May God bless you and the great state of Kansas.

Speaker Hawkins asked for announcements from party caucuses.

Rep. K. Williams stated that the majority (Republican) party had met and elected the following officers:

- Majority Leader, Chris Croft
- Assistant Majority Leader, Les Mason
- Majority Whip, Susan Estes
- Caucus Chair, Kristey Williams

Rep. Croft addressed the following remarks to members of the House:

To begin my comments, I would like to thank my wife, Connie. Connie has been by my side for nearly 40 years and I would not be in this position today without her love, support, and encouragement along the way. Thank you, you are the best. I love you.

Four years ago, following 30 years of service in the Army, I began my journey in the Kansas House. In this chamber, I am surrounded by some extraordinary people who seek to positively impact the lives of others. I am incredibly honored to be selected by my colleagues to serve as the Kansas House Majority Leader. This is a responsibility that I will never take lightly.

Together, we will work tirelessly to build an agenda to elevate all Kansans who rely on us to deliver concrete solutions that impact their lives. We will strive for an education plan that satisfies both parents and teachers while producing better outcomes for our kids and grandkids. We will check rising inflation, get Kansans back to work, and empower taxpayers by ensuring they get to keep more of their hard-earned money. We will support those that provide for our basic health and safety. Kansas is a great place to live, it's a great place to raise a family, and it's a great place for the fundamental rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness to thrive.

We are one team focused on securing our way of life now and in the future. We are ready to get to work for you.

One Team!

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Ballard stated that the minority (Democrat) party had caucused and elected the following officers:

- Minority Leader, Vic Miller
- Assistant Minority Leader, Valdenia Winn
- Minority Whip, Stephanie Sawyer Clayton
- Agenda Chairperson, Jerry Stogsdill
- Caucus Chairperson, Barbara W. Ballard
- Policy Chairperson, Christina Haswood

Rep. Vic Miller addressed the following remarks to members of the House:

To my colleagues on my left, let me say that I treasure the trust you have placed in me (or at least the half of you that did so). I will repeat what I told you previously. Of the many titles I have been blessed with over the course of my life, I value this latest one the most.

I vow to do all that I can to prove myself worthy.

There will be times in this building that the numbers we are up against seem overwhelming. Don't let that deter you. Keep reminding yourself of the struggles so many of our neighbors live with in their everyday lives. Remember that they are counting on us to persevere, to carry their message and do all we can with the power they have given us to lighten their load.

Now, to all of you.

A few years back as a group of people I knew were relaxing from a hard day at work, I made reference to one of the gentlemen among us as a friend. I was a bit taken aback when he stopped me and told me we weren't friends—we were acquaintances. After recovering from the initial shock of such a statement and upon quiet reflection, I had to agree with him.

His point was a good one. Obtaining the status of friend is no small achievement and we should not use such a word loosely. His simple point, however, reached way beyond the moment. Those of us in this chamber need to constantly remind each other and ourselves that words have meaning and consequence and we must choose them wisely, carefully and diplomatically.

We all bring to this body matters we are passionate about. However, we need to make sure our passions are tempered by reason and a degree of calm. And, just as importantly, we need to be quick to apologize when our emotions get the better of our words and argument.

That being said, Mr. Speaker, I look forward to the many times in the months ahead that I'm sure we will disagree on matters of policy and procedure. But among my many goals in this new position that I enjoy, is that after two years of being your worthy adversary we can look each other in the eye and say that we have become friends.

God bless every member of this chamber, God bless the Kansas Senate, God bless our beloved Governor and God bless the State of Kansas and all of her people.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Representative-elect Wasinger was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Dear Almighty God,
 thank You for this day and its blessings
 You have given us.
 Your Word begins with these words:
 "In the beginning, God."
 This tells us that You are eternal—always have been, always is, and always will be.
 And it tells us that You are ever present.
 As we start with the beginning of this new session, help our leaders to understand that You are present
 each and every day.
 Help us to put aside our egos, personal agendas and ambitions, even out political parties and turn to You for Your wisdom, direction and will in all the decisions to be made.
 This I pray in Your magnificent Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Blex.

ARTICLE 21. AMENDMENT OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 2101. Germaneness. Amendments to bills and resolutions shall be germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. The principal test of whether an amendment is germane shall be its relationship to the subject of the bill or resolution, rather than to wording of the title thereof. The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

Rule 2102. Form of Amendment Motions. Motions to amend bills and resolutions shall specify the page and line number, as shown on the printed bill or resolution, and shall be in writing on a form provided by the House or a form substantially similar. Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments. (a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;
(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2307. Motion to Strike Bills and Resolutions from Calendar When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing. Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable. (a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2020 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

ARTICLE 25. VOTING

Rule 2501. Control and Use of Voting System. The electronic voting system shall be under the control of the Speaker or other presiding officer and shall be operated by the chief clerk. The electronic voting system shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question and may be used for ascertaining the vote upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called. In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who votes or attempts to vote for another member shall be subject to Article 49 of these rules. If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. Such member shall be allowed not more than one minute for such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, with printed name and district number, by such member upon the day the vote is taken within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 100 words. Such submission should also be submitted in electronic format to the chief clerk under the same time deadline.

Rule 2506. Copies of Voting Records. (a) Unless otherwise ordered, the chief clerk shall record each roll call vote and make copies available for the use of the news media. No record shall be made of the vote of any member voting upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called.

(b) When a roll call vote is taken, it shall be recorded in the Journal by a statement of the names and total number voting in the affirmative, the names and total number voting in the negative, names and total number indicating presence but not voting and the names and total number absent or not voting, except that the provisions of this section shall not permit a member to fail to vote in violation of Rule 2508.

Rule 2507. When Roll Call Vote to be Taken. (a) A roll call vote shall be taken for the passage of any bill.

(b) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any concurrent resolution to amend the Constitution of the state of Kansas, to call a Kansas constitutional convention, to extend a session of the Legislature in even-numbered years, to ratify any amendment of the Constitution of the United States, to make any application for Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States and when required by the joint rules of the House and Senate. A roll call vote is not required for adoption of concurrent resolutions pertaining to commendations or acknowledgments, unless required under subsection (c) of Rule 2507.

(c) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any House resolution to adopt, amend or revoke any rule of the House or to reject any executive reorganization order.

(e) A roll call vote shall be taken on any question on demand of 15 members, unless a roll call vote is already pending.

Rule 2508. Call of the House. Also, this Rule 2508 shall apply to the taking of a vote on a motion to strike the enacting clause of a bill and the resolving clause of a resolution and on a motion to strike all after the enacting clause or resolving clause, except when the House is in the Committee of the Whole. When the call of the House is invoked, the doors to the House chamber shall be secured and all members shall be required to be in their seats unless excused by the Speaker. All members present during the call shall be required to vote before the call is raised. The call of the House shall not be raised (so long as 10 members continue the demand) until a reasonable effort, as determined by the Speaker, has been exerted to secure absentees.

(b) Any member, who is directly interested in a question, may be excused from voting, when there is a call of the House. The member, who is requesting to be excused from voting, shall state the reasons therefor, occupying not more than five minutes. The question on excusing such member from voting shall be taken without debate and a $\frac{2}{3}$ majority of members present shall be necessary to excuse such member. If a member refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute grounds for reprimand, censure or expulsion under Article 49 of the Rules of the House.

Rule 2509. Voice Vote; Division of the Assembly. Except when a roll call vote is required, a voice vote shall be taken on all questions. Any member may call for a division of the assembly to determine the vote by the voting system.

Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 29, 2023, during the 2023 regular session and on March 28, 2024, during the 2024 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 6, 2023, during the 2023 regular session and after April 5, 2024, during the 2024 regular session except bills vetoed by the governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.
