

HB 2535---Summary

HB 2535 amends the campaign finance act to provide that no person shall make or accept any cryptocurrency contribution for any candidate, candidate committee, political committee or party committee.

The bill also deletes the prohibition against using campaign money collected under the campaign finance act for a campaign for federal elective office.