 - (c) to clarify the award.
- Sec. 18. (a) On motion of a party made within 90 days after an arbitrator gives notice of an award under section 15(a), and amendments thereto, including an award corrected under section 17, and amendments thereto, the court shall correct the award if:

- (c) Unless a motion under section 19, and amendments thereto, is pending, the court may confirm a corrected award under section 16, and amendments thereto.
- Sec. 19. (a) On motion of a party, the court shall vacate an unconfirmed award if the moving party establishes that:

1 (1) The award was procured by corruption, fraud or other undue 2 means;

- (A) Evident partiality by the arbitrator;
- (B) corruption by the arbitrator; or
- (C) misconduct by the arbitrator substantially prejudicing the rights of a party;

- (2) the record of the hearing or the statement of reasons in the award is inadequate for the court to review the award; or
 - (3) a ground for vacating the award under subsection (a) exists.
- (c) If an award is subject to vacation under subsection (b)(1), on motion of a party, the court may amend the award if amending rather than vacating is in the best interests of the child.
- (d) The court shall determine a motion under subsection (b) or (c) based on the record of the arbitration hearing and facts occurring after the hearing.
- (e) A motion under this section to vacate or amend an award must be filed within 90 days:
- (1) After an arbitrator gives the party filing the motion notice of the award or a corrected award; or
- (2) for a motion under subsection (a)(1), after the ground of corruption, fraud or other undue means is known or by the exercise of reasonable care should have been known to the party filing the motion.
 - (f) If the court under this section vacates an award for a reason other than the absence of an enforceable arbitration agreement, the court may order a rehearing before an arbitrator. If the reason for vacating the award is that the award was procured by corruption, fraud or other undue means or there was evident partiality, corruption or misconduct by the arbitrator, the rehearing shall be before another arbitrator.

- (g) If the court under this section denies a motion to vacate or amend an award, the court may confirm the award under section 16, and amendments thereto, unless a motion is pending under section 18, and amendments thereto.
- Sec. 20. If the meaning or effect of an award confirmed under section 16, and amendments thereto, is in dispute, the parties may:
- (a) Agree to arbitrate the dispute before the original arbitrator or another arbitrator; or
- (b) proceed in court under the other laws of this state governing clarification of a judgment in a family law proceeding.
- Sec. 21. (a) On granting an order confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing or amending an award under this act, the court shall enter judgment in conformity with the order.
- (b) On motion of a party, the court may order that a document or part of the arbitration record be sealed or redacted to prevent public disclosure of all or part of the record or award to the extent permitted under the other laws of this state.
- Sec. 22. (a) If a party requests a modification of an award confirmed under section 16, and amendments thereto, or judgment on the award based on a fact occurring after confirmation pursuant to the other laws of the state:
- (1) The parties shall proceed under the dispute-resolution method specified in the award or judgment; or
- (2) if the award or judgment does not specify a dispute-resolution method, the parties may:
- (A) Agree to arbitrate the modification before the original arbitrator or another arbitrator; or
- (B) absent agreement, proceed under the other laws of this state governing modification of a judgment in a family law proceeding.
- Sec. 23. (a) The court shall enforce an award confirmed under section 16, and amendments thereto, including a temporary award, in the same manner and to the same extent as any other order or judgment of a court.
- (b) The court shall enforce an arbitration award in a family law dispute confirmed by a court in another state in the same manner and to the same extent as any other order or judgment from another state.
 - Sec. 24. (a) An appeal may be taken under this act from:

 - (2) an order granting a motion to stay arbitration;

(3) an order confirming or denying confirmation of an award;

- (4) an order correcting an award;
- (5) an order vacating an award without directing a rehearing; or
- (6) a final judgment.

- (b) An appeal under this section may be taken as from an order or a judgment in a civil action.
- Sec. 25. (a) An arbitrator or arbitration organization acting in that capacity in a family law dispute is immune from civil liability to the same extent as a judge of a court of this state acting in a judicial capacity.
- (b) The immunity provided by this section supplements any immunity under the other laws of this state.
- (c) An arbitrator's failure to make a disclosure required by section 9, and amendments thereto, shall not cause the arbitrator to lose immunity under this section.
- (d) An arbitrator is not competent to testify, and may not be required to produce records in a judicial, administrative or similar proceeding about a statement, conduct, decision or ruling occurring during an arbitration, to the same extent as a judge of a court of this state acting in a judicial capacity. This subsection does not apply to:
- (1) The extent disclosure is necessary to determine a claim by the arbitrator or arbitration organization against a party to the arbitration; or
- (2) a hearing on a motion under section 19(a)(1) or (a)(2), and amendments thereto, to vacate an award, if there is prima facie evidence that a ground for vacating the award exists.
- (e) If a person commences a civil action against an arbitrator arising from the services of the arbitrator or seeks to compel the arbitrator to testify or produce records in violation of subsection (d) and the court determines that the arbitrator is immune from civil liability or is not competent to testify or required to produce the records, the court shall award the arbitrator reasonable attorney fees, costs and reasonable expenses of litigation.
- Sec. 26. In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.
- Sec. 27. This act modifies, limits or supersedes the electronic signatures in global and national commerce act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq., but does not modify, limit or supersede section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7003(b).
- Sec. 28. This act applies to arbitration of a family law dispute under an arbitration agreement made on or after July 1, 2023. If an arbitration agreement was made before July 1, 2023, the parties may agree in a record that this act applies to the arbitration.

Sec. 29. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the statute book.
