8-279. Same; cancellation, suspension, revocation or refusal to issue license, when. The department may cancel, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew any driver's training school or driver's training instructor license if any of the following occurs:

- (a) The department is satisfied that the licensee fails to meet the requirements to receive or hold a license under this act;
- (b) the licensee fails to keep the records required herein;
- (c) the licensee permits fraud or engages in fraudulent practices either with reference to the applicant or the department, or induces or countenances fraud or fraudulent practices on the part of any applicant for a driver's license or permit;
- (d) the licensee fails to comply with any provision of this act or any of the rules and regulations of the department made pursuant thereto;
- (e) the licensee represents such licensee as an agent or employee of the department or license examiners or uses advertising designed to lead or which would reasonably have the effect of leading persons to believe that such licensee is in fact an employee or representative of the department or license examiners;
- (f) the licensee or any employee or agent of the licensee solicits driver training or instruction in an office of any department of the state having to do with the administration of any law relating to motor vehicles; or
- (g) the licensee has had their operator's or chauffeur's license canceled, suspended or revoked.
