

2023 Kansas Statutes

12-3507. Approval of assessment plan and method of assessment; exception. (a) In the event that the statute under which any levy of any special assessment is made authorizes a board to determine the assessment plan or the method of apportionment of such assessments, the secretary shall specify the assessment plans or methods of apportionment which will be approved for each project for which an assessment against the property of the state of Kansas is proposed. The secretary shall make such specification in writing and deliver the same to the interested board as soon as such specification can reasonably be made by the secretary.

(b) This section shall not apply to special assessments levied by a board for purposes listed in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 12-3506, and amendments thereto.
