

2023 Kansas Statutes

19-2718. Duties of township board. The township board shall administer the funds of the said taxing district, and said taxes when collected shall be paid over to the township treasurer in the same manner as taxes levied for township purposes. The township board shall make the necessary expenditures from such funds to provide for fire protection and/or for lighting the streets within such taxing district. All moneys raised by taxation as herein provided shall be used for the purposes herein specified and for no other purpose, and such moneys shall be paid out by said township board upon orders drawn by the clerk thereof upon the treasury of such board.
