

2023 Kansas Statutes

74-2606. Meetings and office of authority. The Kansas water authority shall hold regular meetings, not less than one in each calendar quarter year, and it may hold such other meetings as in its judgment may be necessary for the performance of its duties. Although its office shall be in Topeka, the authority may hold its meetings, regular and otherwise, at such times and at such places within the state as may be provided by its rules and regulations.
