

2023 Kansas Statutes

74-5048. Division of trade development; powers. The division of trade development is hereby authorized and empowered to:

- (a) Promote the export of Kansas products outside the state and the United States;
- (b) develop and conduct trade development and market research missions to foreign markets and host foreign buying teams visiting Kansas;
- (c) prepare and distribute an export directory and other specialized product information to foreign buyers;
- (d) identify and develop foreign trade leads;
- (e) coordinate with and disseminate information regarding the international grains program and international trade institute conducted at Kansas state university; and
- (f) coordinate with and disseminate information regarding any international trade activities of the division of markets of the Kansas department of agriculture.

History: L. 1986, ch. 296, § 18; L. 2004, ch. 101, § 129; July 1.