

2023 Kansas Statutes

74-8789. Civil action by the state against persons who improperly influence a betting outcome of a sporting event. The state shall have a cause of action against any person who knowingly engages in, facilitates or conceals conduct that intends to improperly influence a betting outcome of a sporting event for purposes of financial gain, in connection with betting or wagering on a sporting event. The state may seek damages or other equitable relief. The provisions of this section shall not be construed as a limitation on or bar against any other claims that the state may bring against such person or any other claim that the state may bring for injuries or damages arising out of the operation of sports wagering.
