

2023 Kansas Statutes

75-766. Public policy concerning prosecuting attorneys; authorizing certain agreements. (a) To promote efficiency in staffing and operations and consistency in enforcement of the criminal law, it is declared to be the public policy of this state that the prosecuting attorneys who bring criminal actions in the name of the state of Kansas, other than county and district attorneys, and the funding therefor should, to the extent practicable, be located in the attorney general's office under the jurisdiction of the attorney general.

(b) Any state agency may enter into agreements with the attorney general to carry out provisions of this section and K.S.A. 75-765, and amendments thereto.
