75-3710. Meetings; compensation and expenses; notice and agenda of meetings to certain state officers and members of legislature; copies of minutes. Upon call of the chairman, the state finance council shall meet as often as may be necessary to perform its duties. The legislative members of the state finance council shall for attendance at meetings of the state finance council receive compensation and travel expenses and subsistence expenses or allowances as provided in K.S.A. 75-3212, and amendments thereto. The director of legislative administrative services, the director of the legislative research department and each member of the state finance council shall be given notice by the chairman of each meeting called and a copy of the agenda therefor and a copy of all accompanying documents in advance of such meeting, except in cases of emergency. Upon such notification, the director of legislative administrative services shall mail a notice of the meeting of the state finance council to each member of the legislature, together with a copy of the agenda, and shall keep a copy of the agenda and of all accompanying documents for such meeting on file. The agenda for each meeting of the finance council shall indicate whether there are accompanying documents for any agenda item, the nature of such documents and that a copy of each such document is on file with the director of legislative administrative services. Notwithstanding the above, the chairman of the state finance council may add items to the agenda at the time of any meeting of the state finance council. The chairman shall cause minutes to be prepared for each meeting of the council, and a copy thereof shall be sent to each person who is required by this section to be notified of the council's meetings.
