

2023 Kansas Statutes

75-52,172. Secretary authorized to designate certain employees to attend the law enforcement training center. The secretary of corrections may, with the consent of the director of police training, designate an employee of the department other than a special agent, to attend the law enforcement training center or any training school certified pursuant to K.S.A. 74-5604a, and amendments thereto, or to attend courses provided by the training center or training schools. The employee and the department of corrections shall be provided a transcript of the courses successfully completed by the employee.

History: L. 2022, ch. 19, § 1; July 1.