

2023 Kansas Statutes

77-168. Volume 7 of Kansas Statutes Annotated; contents; preparation. After the passage of 1965 Senate bill No. 4, known as the "uniform commercial code," the revisor of statutes shall edit and prepare for printing and publication the provisions thereof as a new and separate volume of the Kansas Statutes Annotated. Said volume shall be numbered "7" and shall be printed and bound by the state printer in the same format used in the Kansas Statutes Annotated in the manner as specified by the revisor of statutes pursuant to the provisions of this act.

In addition to the material and requirements specified in the K.S.A. 77-133, the revisor of statutes shall include in said volume an index to the text of the statutes included therein and such other material as will facilitate the use of such volume. Said code shall be given the Kansas Statutes Annotated chapter number 84, and the running section numbers shall contain such chapter citation followed by the numerical part of the uniform commercial code citation, for example, "84-1-101," and the "UCC" references preceding the section captions shall be omitted.

History: L. 1965, ch. 507, § 1; May 20.
