

2023 Kansas Statutes

77-203. Notice; certified mail in lieu of registered mail; sufficiency. In lieu of giving notice by registered mail as provided for by specific statutes of this state, any party may give the notice required by certified mail and notice so given by certified mail shall constitute and be sufficient notice the same as though such notice was made pursuant to specific statutes requiring registered mail.

History: L. 1970, ch. 379, § 1; July 1.