

2012 Kansas Statutes

9-1715. Authority to engage in activities authorized for national banks; powers of bank commissioner, limitations; special order, publication; report to legislature. (a) The commissioner shall have the power to authorize any or all state banks to engage in any activity in which such banks could engage were they operating as any insured depository institution at the time such authority is granted, including but without limitation because of enumeration the power to do any act, and own, possess and carry as assets, property of such character including stocks, bonds or other debentures which, at the time authority is granted, is authorized under applicable laws and regulations to be done by any insured depository institution notwithstanding any restriction elsewhere contained in the statutes of the state of Kansas. This power shall include the power to authorize any or all Kansas trust companies to engage in any trust related activity in which the trust department of any insured depository institution with trust powers could engage at the time authority is granted. This power shall be in addition to any and all other powers granted to the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner shall exercise the power granted in subsection (a) by the issuance of a special order if the commissioner deems it reasonably required to preserve and protect the welfare of a particular institution, or if the commissioner deems it reasonably required to preserve the welfare of all state banks or trust companies and to promote competitive equality of state and other insured depository institutions. Such special order shall provide for the effective date thereof and upon and after such date shall be in full force and effect until amended or revoked by the commissioner. Promptly following issuance, the commissioner shall mail a copy of each special order to all state banks and trust companies and shall be published in the Kansas register.

(c) The commissioner, at the time of issuing any special order pursuant to this section, shall prepare a written report, which shall include a description of the special order and a copy of the special order, and submit the written report to:

- (1) The president and the minority leader of the senate;
- (2) the chairperson and ranking minority member of the senate standing committee on financial institutions and insurance;
- (3) the speaker and the minority leader of the house of representatives;
- (4) the chairperson and ranking minority member of the house of representatives standing committee on financial institutions; and
- (5) the governor.

(d) Within two weeks of the beginning of each legislative session, the commissioner shall submit to the chair of the senate standing committee on financial institutions and insurance, and the chair of the house standing committee on financial institutions, a written summary of each special order issued during the preceding year. Upon request of the chair of the senate standing committee on financial institutions and insurance or the chair of the house standing committee on financial institutions, the commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, shall appear before the committee to discuss any special order issued during the preceding year. If the committee desires information concerning the economic impact of any special order, the committee chair or ranking minority member may request assistance from the division of budget.

(e) The issuance of special orders under this section shall not be subject to the provisions of article 4 of chapter 77 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated.

(f) As used in this statute, "insured depository institution" means a bank, a savings and loan association or a savings bank organized under the laws of the United States, this state, or any other state, whose deposits are insured by the United States government.
