

2012 Kansas Statutes

12-2719. Same; reimbursement by city, limitations; tax levies; bonds. The governing body of such contracting city, pursuant to authorizing ordinances as hereinafter provided, is hereby authorized to obligate itself to reimburse the United States of America or any instrumentality or political subdivision of the state government, such portion of the cost of such storage and distribution facilities, not exceeding fifteen percent (15%) of the assessed valuation of the tangible property within the corporate limits of the contracting city, and interest thereon not exceeding the maximum rate of interest prescribed by K.S.A. 10-1009, as may be determined by such city and the United States of America, or any instrumentality or political subdivision of the state government, to be allocable to the municipal water supply and distribution facilities and recreational area and facilities furnished or constructed by the United States of America, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or with the state of Kansas or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof, and such contract for reimbursement may provide for payment of costs allocable to the city at the time of construction or may extend over such period of years as is permissible under applicable laws and regulations for a period of not exceeding fifty (50) years, or may extend over any shorter period as may be agreed to by the governing body of such city.

For the purpose of financing such reimbursement, such contracting city is hereby authorized to levy an annual tax of not to exceed two (2) mills on all the taxable tangible property of such city during the period of said reimbursement contract. Such levy shall be in addition to all other tax levies authorized by law, and shall not be subject to nor within the aggregate tax levy limits prescribed by article 19 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto. The governing body of the city may also issue general obligation bonds of the city, subject to the limitations prescribed in this act, for the purposes herein specified, and all such bonds shall be issued, registered, sold, delivered and retired in accordance with the applicable provisions of the general bond law. Contractual obligations of the contracting city shall not be subject to nor within any bonded debt or other debt or obligation limitation prescribed by the laws of the state of Kansas, and shall not be considered or included in applying any other law limiting bonded indebtedness or limiting other obligations of such cities.
