

2012 Kansas Statutes

13-3106. Same; leasing provisions. The governing body of any such city may lease any transit system in whole or part to any person who will contract to operate it according to rules, time tables and other requirements established by the governing body, and such lease may be made for a term of not to exceed ten (10) years.

History: L. 1965, ch. 123, § 6; May 15.