

2012 Kansas Statutes

19-2647. Preservation of historical records in counties; declaration of public interest. The collection, preservation, display and housing of records, documents and other articles of historical value or interest is hereby declared to be in the public interest.

History: L. 1955, ch. 179, § 1; June 30.