

2012 Kansas Statutes

20-361. Compensation of certain district court personnel to be paid by state; pay plan for court reporters. (a) The state shall pay the salaries of all nonjudicial personnel of the district courts of this state, except for personnel enumerated in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 20-162 and amendments thereto, and no county may supplement the compensation of district court personnel paid by the state. For employees of the district court who were employees of such court on December 31, 1978, a full month's proportion of the employee's annual pay shall be paid for the state payroll period ending on January 17, 1979, notwithstanding that such period is shorter than the normal state payroll period. With regard to judicial and nonjudicial personnel of the district courts whose salary is payable by the state, the state shall provide for unemployment security coverage, employer contributions for retirement, workmen's compensation coverage, health insurance coverage and surety bond coverage.

(b) The supreme court shall establish a formal pay plan for court reporters serving district judges. Within the limits of legislative appropriations therefor, compensation of such court reporters shall be paid by the state in an amount prescribed by the pay plan established by the supreme court and no county may supplement the compensation of such court reporters. The plan shall detail each reporters position by classification, pay grade and pay step.
