

2012 Kansas Statutes

22-2611. Death and cause of death in different places. If the cause of death is inflicted in one county and the death ensues in another county, the prosecution may be in either of such counties. Death shall be presumed to have occurred in the county where the body of the victim is found.

History: L. 1970, ch. 129, § 22-2611; July 1.