

2012 Kansas Statutes

22-3704. Reprieves in capital cases. In cases where the death penalty has been imposed the governor may order the postponement of the execution of the sentence for a limited time. At the expiration of such time the sentence of the court shall be carried out.

History: L. 1970, ch. 129, § 22-3704; July 1.