

2012 Kansas Statutes

23-2709. Pretrial conference. The court shall conduct a pretrial conference or conferences in accordance with K.S.A. 60-216, and amendments thereto, upon request of either party or on the court's own motion. Any pretrial conference shall be set on a date other than the date of trial and the parties shall be present or available within the courthouse.

History: L. 2011, ch. 26, § 5; L. 2012, ch. 162, § 38; May 31.