

2012 Kansas Statutes

24-102. Suits by state to recover lands wrongfully reclaimed from streams. The attorney general is hereby authorized and directed to institute suits in the name of the state of Kansas for the recovery of any lands situated within the state of Kansas which have been wrongfully reclaimed from the channel of any navigable stream, which land shall thereafter be held by the state subject only to such rights, if any, incidental to riparian ownership as may be held by adjacent proprietors.

History: L. 1909, ch. 131, § 1; March 4; R.S. 1923, 24-102.