

2012 Kansas Statutes

25-716. Plurality of votes to govern question submitted election. (a) Notwithstanding the fact that the provisions of law may not have been fully complied with in noticing and conducting a question submitted election and so that the real will of the people may not be defeated by any technical irregularity of any officer, whenever the greater number of votes were in favor of a question submitted, the question shall be deemed to have carried and likewise if the greater number of votes were against a question submitted, the question shall be deemed not to have carried.

(b) "Question submitted election" means any election at which a special question is to be voted on by the electors of the state or a part of them.

History: L. 1987, ch. 126, § 1; July 1.