

2012 Kansas Statutes

25-3502. Same; governor's proclamation of election. Except as is otherwise provided in this act, the governor shall proclaim the date of any election held under this act to be a day not less than 45 days nor more than 60 days after such proclamation is issued. Such proclamation shall be made in writing, signed by the governor and delivered by him to the secretary of state. Thereupon the secretary of state shall promptly cause such proclamation to be published in the Kansas register, and a copy thereof shall be transmitted by the secretary to the chairperson of all state political parties authorized to hold congressional district conventions under the provisions of K.S.A. 25-3504.
