

2012 Kansas Statutes

34-260. Interpleader of adverse claimants. If more than one person claim the title or possession of the grain, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the grain, or by an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

History: L. 1931, ch. 194, § 38; July 1.