

2012 Kansas Statutes

40-2703. Violation of act; action to enjoin or restrain acts; jurisdiction. Whenever the commissioner of insurance believes, from evidence satisfactory to him, that any insurer is violating or about to violate the provisions of K.S.A. 40-2702, the commissioner of insurance may, through the attorney general of this state, cause a complaint to be filed in a district court of proper venue to enjoin and restrain such insurer from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act in furtherance thereof. Said district court shall have jurisdiction of any such proceeding and shall have the power to make and enter an order or judgment awarding such preliminary or final injunctive relief as in its judgment is proper.
