

2012 Kansas Statutes

46-1603. House standing committee on economic development. There is hereby established a standing committee of the house of representatives known as the house committee on economic development. The members of the committee shall be appointed in the same manner as members of other standing committees of the house of representatives. Laws and rules applicable to other standing committees of the house of representatives shall apply to the house economic development committee.

History: L. 1986, ch. 194, § 3; May 22.