

2012 Kansas Statutes

49-517. Same; rights not created; valuation determinations not subject to judicial review. (a) Nothing in this act shall create any property right or right in action. The courts shall have no jurisdiction to entertain any action against the trust, the secretary or department of health and environment or the state of Kansas, or any officer or agent thereof, founded on a claim that the claimant should have received different or better treatment pursuant to this act.

(b) Determinations made by the trust pursuant to the assistance program provided for by this act, including, but not limited to, determinations as to what constitutes the average rental cost of comparable housing, the average cost of comparable properties, the eligibility of any person for assistance and the determination of the proper amount of such assistance, if any, shall be committed to the sole discretion of the trust based on the information available to it and shall not be subject to judicial review.

History: L. 2007, ch. 17, § 7; July 1.