

2012 Kansas Statutes

50-620. Prohibited acts; certain information as to ownership of junk required; register. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell any item or items of junk to a junk dealer in this state unless such person shall present to said junk dealer, at the time of sale, information as to the ownership of such item or items of junk. Such information shall include the seller's name, address and place of business, if any. Every junk dealer shall keep a register in which the dealer shall at the time of purchase or receipt of any item, excepting rags and paper, enter the name, residence and place of business, if any, of the person from whom the junk dealer purchased or received the item, description of items purchased and the price paid for such item or items.
