

2012 Kansas Statutes

56a-1104. Activities not constituting transacting business. (a) Activities of a foreign limited liability partnership which do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of K.S.A. 56a-1101 through 56a-1105 include:

- (1) Maintaining, defending or settling an action or proceeding;
- (2) holding meetings of its partners or carrying on any other activity concerning its internal affairs;
- (3) maintaining bank accounts;
- (4) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange and registration of the partnership's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;
- (5) selling through independent contractors;
- (6) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;
- (7) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages or security interests in real or personal property;
- (8) securing or collecting debts or foreclosing mortgages or other security interests in property securing the debts, and holding, protecting and maintaining property so acquired;
- (9) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and is not one in the course of similar transactions of like nature; and
- (10) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(b) For purposes of K.S.A. 56a-1101 through 56a-1105, the ownership in this state of income producing real property or tangible personal property, other than property excluded under subsection (a), constitutes transacting business in this state.

(c) This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a foreign limited liability partnership to service of process, taxation or regulation under any other law of this state.
