

2012 Kansas Statutes

58a-109. Methods and waiver of notice. (a) Notice to a person under this code or the sending of a document to a person under this code must be accomplished in a manner reasonably suitable under the circumstances and likely to result in receipt of the notice or document. Permissible methods of notice or for sending a document include first-class mail, personal delivery, delivery to the person's last known place of residence or place of business, or a properly directed electronic message.

(b) Notice otherwise required under this code or a document otherwise required to be sent under this code need not be provided to a person whose identity or location is unknown to and not reasonably ascertainable by the trustee.

(c) Notice under this code or the sending of a document under this code may be waived by the person to be notified or sent the document.

(d) Notice of a judicial proceeding must be given as provided in the code of civil procedure.
