

2012 Kansas Statutes

61-3907. Insufficiency of bond. If a supersedeas bond was not filed with the notice of appeal, and if the action is not yet docketed on appeal, a bond may be filed with the court from which the appeal is taken. After the action is so docketed, application for leave to file a bond may be made only in the appellate court. When the surety for a supersedeas bond shall be insufficient, or such bond is insufficient in form or amount, the appellate court may on motion order a change or renewal of such bond, and direct that it be filed in such court.
