

2012 Kansas Statutes

66-1322. Custody of property and records; resolution of conflicts by governor. On the effective date of this act, the superintendent of the Kansas highway patrol shall succeed to the custody and control of all property and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of the powers, duties and functions imposed and conferred on the superintendent under the provisions of this act. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of such property or records arising under this section, and resulting from the transfer of the powers, duties and functions of the secretary of revenue to the superintendent, shall be resolved by the governor, whose decision shall be final.
