

2012 Kansas Statutes

73-1101. Buildings, rooms and facilities in certain cities. Any city situated in any county adjoining a United States military reservation may, whenever deemed expedient by its governing body, acquire, establish and maintain such buildings, rooms and facilities as the governing body deems necessary for the recreation and entertainment of United States soldiers and their relatives and friends, and may use public buildings for such purposes.

History: L. 1941, ch. 114, § 1; April 9.