

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-50,115. Same; sales tax exemption; requirements. (a) A manufacturing business may be eligible for a sales tax exemption under the provisions of subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, if the manufacturing business complies with the following requirements:

(1) A manufacturing business shall provide documented evidence of job expansion involving the employment of at least two additional full-time employees; and

(2) a manufacturing business located within the state of Kansas that has documented evidence of job expansion as provided in paragraph (1), which relocates in another city or county within the state of Kansas must receive approval from the secretary prior to qualifying for the sales tax exemption in subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, except that approval by the secretary shall not be required if the manufacturing business relocates within the same city.

(b) A nonmanufacturing business may be eligible for a sales tax exemption under the provisions of subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, if the nonmanufacturing business complies with the following requirements:

(1) A nonmanufacturing business shall provide documented evidence of job expansion involving the employment of at least five additional full-time employees; and

(2) a nonmanufacturing business located within the state of Kansas that has documented evidence of job expansion as provided in paragraph (1), which relocates in another city or county within the state of Kansas must receive approval from the secretary prior to qualifying for the sales tax exemption in subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, except that approval by the secretary shall not be required if the nonmanufacturing business relocates within the same city.

(c) A retail business may qualify for the sales tax exemption under subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, if the retail business complies with the following requirements:

(1) A retail business shall provide documented evidence of job expansion involving the employment of at least two additional full-time employees; and

(2) (A) such retail business locates or expands to a city having a population of 2,500 or less, as determined by the latest Kansas division of budget revised population numbers that are certified to the secretary of state, or (B) such retail business locates or expands to a location outside a city in a county having a population of 10,000 or less, as determined by the latest Kansas division of budget revised population numbers that are certified to the secretary of state.

(d) Any person constructing, reconstructing, remodeling or enlarging a facility which will be leased in whole or in part for a period of five years or more, or commencing on the effective date of this act and ending on April 1, 2007, any person constructing, reconstructing, remodeling or enlarging a facility located within Saline county which title of such facility will be conveyed, to a business that would be eligible for a sales tax exemption hereunder if such business had constructed, reconstructed, enlarged or remodeled such facility or portion thereof itself shall be entitled to the sales tax exemption under the provisions of subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto. When such person leases less than the total facility to an eligible business, a project exemption certificate may be granted on: (1) The total cost of constructing, reconstructing, remodeling or enlarging, the facility multiplied by a fraction given by dividing the number of leased square feet eligible for the sales tax exemption by the total square feet being constructed, reconstructed, remodeled or enlarged; or (2) the actual cost of constructing, reconstructing, remodeling or enlarging that portion of the facility to be occupied by the eligible business, as the person may elect.

(e) A business may qualify for a sales tax exemption under subsection (cc) of K.S.A. 79-3606, and amendments thereto, without regard to any of the foregoing requirements of this section if it is certified as a qualified firm by the secretary of commerce pursuant to K.S.A. 74-50,131, and amendments thereto, and is entitled to the corporate tax credit established in K.S.A. 74-50,132, and amendments thereto, or has received written approval for participation and has participated, during the tax year in which the exemption is claimed, in training assistance by the department of commerce under the Kansas industrial training, Kansas industrial retraining or state of Kansas investments in lifelong learning program.

(f) The secretary may adopt rules and regulations to implement and administer the provisions of this section.
