

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-5911. Kansas advisory council on intergovernmental relations abolished; transfer of records and property. The Kansas advisory council on intergovernmental relations is hereby abolished. All records and property of the council shall be transferred to and become the property of the division of legislative administrative services on the effective date of this act.

History: L. 1975, ch. 418, § 1; July 1.