

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-7024. Exemptions from examination for licensure; reciprocity; certain license or certificate holders; fees; conditions. Any person who holds a current license or certificate of qualification or registration to practice any branch of the technical professions issued by the proper authority in any other state or political subdivision of the United States or in any other country may be exempted from examination for licensure in this state if the requirements under which such license or certificate was issued are of a standard accepted by the board and if the person's record fully meets the requirements of this state in all respects other than examination. The board may issue, upon application therefor and receipt of payment of the application fee prescribed under K.S.A. 74-7009, and amendments thereto, a license to practice the appropriate technical profession if the proper authority of the state, political subdivision or country from which the applicant holds a license or certificate agrees to accept on an equal basis persons who hold licenses issued by the authority of this state.
