

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-7905. Disposition and use of sale proceeds. All moneys received from the sale of prints and stamps shall be credited to the wildlife art fund which is hereby established and used only for the payment of expenses incurred by the council and the Fort Hays state university museums in promoting the state of Kansas. All expenditures from the wildlife art fund shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the president of Fort Hays state university or by a person or persons approved by such president.

History: L. 1986, ch. 280, § 5; L. 1992, ch. 96, § 5; July 1.