

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-127. Vacancy in office of lieutenant governor; president of senate to serve in certain capacities. Whenever the lieutenant governor is provided by law to be a member or officer, or both, of any board, commission, council or other statutory body, and the office of lieutenant governor is vacant, the president of the senate shall be such member or officer, unless some other provision of law provides to the contrary.

History: L. 1973, ch. 153, § 28; July 1.