

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-1218. Exemption from construction codes of municipality or local government; zoning. If a mobile home or recreational vehicle is in compliance with the code, no agency of this state, nor any municipality or other local governmental body shall require such mobile home or recreational vehicle to comply with any building, plumbing, heating or electrical code other than the code established by this act. All mobile homes shall be subject to zoning regulations of counties and cities applicable to areas in which such homes are located.

History: L. 1972, ch. 338, § 8; L. 1979, ch. 281, § 5; April 13.