

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-2959. Severability of provisions. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof, to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of this act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby, and the decision of the court respecting such provision or provisions shall not affect the validity of any other provision, which can be given effect without such invalid provisions. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been enacted by the legislature had such invalid provisions not been included herein.

History: L. 1941, ch. 358, § 35; June 1.