

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-3511. Same; availability of records in records center. Records stored in the records center shall be available promptly when called for by the originating agencies or departments, but they shall not be used by others except with the approval of the originating department.

History: L. 1957, ch. 459, § 3; April 8.