

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-3702e. Same; transfer of employees; rights preserved. Effective July 1, 1972, officers and employees who were engaged immediately prior to said date in the performance of powers, duties, and functions of any existing state agency which becomes a part of the department of administration created by this act or the powers, duties and functions of which are transferred to the department of administration created by this act, and who, in the opinion of the secretary of administration are necessary to perform the powers, duties, and functions of the department of administration, or of any division, section, or other unit thereof shall become officers and employees of the department of administration, and shall retain all retirement benefits and all rights of civil service which such officer or employee had before July 1, 1972, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions of personnel in the classified civil service shall be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and regulations. This section shall not apply to members of boards, commissions and councils.

History: L. 1972, ch. 332, § 32; July 1.