

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-5021. Location of offices of secretary and department; availability of engineering testing laboratories at Kansas state university. The secretary of transportation and the department of transportation shall have offices and facilities in Topeka and such other locations throughout the state as are necessary. The engineering testing laboratories at Kansas state university of agriculture and applied science shall be available for the use of the department of transportation at all times.

History: L. 1975, ch. 426, § 21; July 1.