

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-53,102. Same; transition councils. The secretary will direct statewide development of local transition councils. A state transition council, comprised of representatives of the local councils, will meet at least annually to identify successful alternatives to barriers for effective education, employment and independent living outcomes.

History: L. 1992, ch. 129, § 4; July 1.