

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-5905. Certain officers and employees transferred to new department; civil service and retirement benefits preserved; civil service laws applicable. All officers and employees who were engaged immediately prior to July 1, 1977, in the performance of powers, duties and functions of the services to the aging section of the department of social and rehabilitation services and who, in the opinion of the secretary of aging, are necessary to perform the powers, duties and functions of the department on aging, shall become officers and employees of the department on aging. Any such officer or employee shall retain all retirement benefits and rights of civil service which had accrued to or vested in such officer or employee prior to July 1, 1977, and the service of each such officer and employee so transferred shall be deemed to have been continuous. All transfers and any abolishment of positions of personnel in the classified service under the Kansas civil service act shall be in accordance with civil service laws and any rules and regulations adopted thereunder.
